Councilman Mesceda to address the Loader first: Volvo has the best trade in value, and the forks we have fit the Volvo, if we can barter for the lower price set for March 14, or honor the higher price if necessary. Motion by Councilman Mesceda to purchase the Volvo for $ 66,469.00 and try to work the price down to $ 62,215.00. Second by Councilman Bennett. Mangino has a Chevrolet for $ 57,405 with a trade in of $28,000

Highway Superintendent McGowan does not think remote start is required but the running boards: are important. Motion by Councilman Mesceda to purchase the MacGuire Chevrolet for $ 46,879.43. with the trade in of $30,000. Second by Councilman Price. Roll call vote: Supervisor Black aye, Councilman Mesceda aye, Councilman Bennett aye, Councilman Price aye, Councilwoman Mesceda-Knoop aye. Vote all ayes. Highway Superintendent McGowan mentioned the option to sell the current Pick up on Auctions International. Supervisor Black thought the $30,000 was a good trade in price and would stay with MacGuire.

Councilman Mesceda asked if the gutters have been decided on. Councilman Bennett contacted two contractors and if they are under the $3,500 procurement limit we can pick either one. Councilman Bennet reports the gutters do not need to be replaced, just cleaned and joints resealed. Councilman Bennett is waiting for quotes for replacement and or cleaning/re sealing.

Supervisor Black has spoken with Juliette Sinclair, she is requesting the up to date version of New York State Building Codes. Supervisor Black has information that the new set of books would be $ 949.40. Councilman Mesceda believes that if the Town purchases them, they are town property and should stay in the building. Councilwoman Mesceda-Knoop wants the books labeled or in digital format on the phone the Town owns. Supervisor Black thinks a tablet would cost less than the $ 949. Councilwoman Mesceda-Knoop found the digital version on ICC (International Code) website. The Town Board decide at the next regular meeting.

Motion by Councilman Mesceda to adjourn this meeting at 7:21 PM.
